JUNE 2016

MIAMI, FL – The monthly Sunshine Jazz Concert Series continues on the fourth Sunday, June 26th, at Miami Shores Country Club from 6:00pm until 9:00pm. This month we invite you to bring your dancing shoes because you're in for a treat! The music menu features spicy Latin jazz by Eddy Balzola & ORIENTE, plus extra special Soul Sax added by Miami's own Jesse Jones, Jr!

An explosive celebration of melody, rhythm & soul, ORIENTE debuted in New Orleans at Snug Harbor. The crowd loved their signature hard-driving yet melodic Cuban roots innovations, blending Afro-Latin rhythms with jazz, blues and global influences, colored by Eddy's creative arrangements, poetry and melodic guitar phrasing. South Fla Jazz Hall of Fame inductee, Jesse Jones, Jr. has a rhythmic style and soul that just meshes with Eddy's groove perfectly, and they enjoy every opportunity to collaborate.

ORIENTE maintains a busy show schedule of festivals, theaters, private parties etc. They represented S. Florida's original music at the SoBe Wine & Food Fest live filming of Chef Bobby Flay's Food Network show, and are featured in the award-winning International travel show "Music Voyager", seen on PBS and cable stations worldwide. The band will also feature four of Miami's best musicians including long-time band mates Stuart King on Trumpet and Orlando Machado on trap Drums, along with Eduardo Rodriguez on Percussion and Rafael Valencia on Bass.
