The Sunshine Jazz Concert Series Presents
The Yvette Norwood-Tiger Ensemble, "A Tribute to Ella"
Sunday, February 23, 2020

February 2020

MIAMI, FL – It's a new year and decade, and it's SJO's 33rd Season. Amazing! Our monthly Sunshine Jazz concert series continues to be an exciting and heartwarming gathering, and February will be no exception. SJO is pleased to present a very special artist in her first SJO concert – Ms. Yvette Norwood-Tiger with her ensemble paying tribute to the great Ella Fitzgerald, "The First Lady of Song".

Yvette Norwood-Tiger is an international jazz vocalist and recording artist, songwriter, vocal coach, and founder/director of the Palm Beach International Jazz Festival. She is a Detroit, Michigan native who hails from a family of musicians, including a father who played guitar and a mother who played drums. Her concerts and recordings celebrate and feature music from great composers such as Cole Porter, Duke Ellington and the Gershwins as well as her original songs. Yvette performs with vocally clean and pure interpretations of the great American Songbook, while emphasizing intonation and storytelling with styling and texture often compared to that of Ella Fitzgerald and Billie Holiday.

Yvette Norwood-Tiger and her Jazz Ensemble honor Ms. Ella Fitzgerald's memory. They have performed worldwide at famous and historic jazz venues where Ella Fitzgerald once performed. Recently, Yvette Norwood-Tiger performed A'la Ella! to sold out, standing room only audiences at Royal Albert Hall in London, England, Berlin, Germany, and Cape Town, South Africa. Yvette's newly released CD, "LOVE IS", is a compilation of great jazz standards and original songs and music with some tunes celebrating the works of musical geniuses John Coltrane and Duke Ellington.
