The Sunshine Jazz Concert Series Presents

The Nicole Yarling Quintet!

Sunday, November 19th, 2017

October 2017

MIAMI, FL –

The Sunshine Jazz Organization has a history of consistently presenting a wide variety of artists from South Florida's treasure trove of Jazz and Blues musicians. During 30 years of promotions, concerts, workshops, showcases and more, the SJO has hit home run after home run and, as we enter our 31st Season, you can expect nothing less, especially from our Sunshine Jazz Concert Series featured artists on November 19th – The Nicole Yarling Quintet!

Born and raised in Brooklyn, N.Y., Nicole was inspired by her father who played jazz organ and piano. As a child they listened to Etta Jones, Miles Davis, Sonny Rollins, the Beatles and Motown classics etc. and she jammed on violin with him. Through those influences she developed her passion and caught the performance bug. Nicole's education is extensive including Music Education, Composition, Arranging, Voice and Violin. Since moving to Florida in 1980, she has developed into a generous and dedicated musician, mentor and musical activist, enriching our community through her various performances, master classes and projects. Ms. Nicole Yarling was also recently inducted into The South Florida Jazz Hall of Fame.

Five talented musicians will come together to perform on November 19th. Not only great musicians, they are educators and mentors as well. With a powerhouse rhythm section consisting of Jim Gasior on piano, Chuck Bergeron on bass and John Yarling on drums, together with Jean Caze on trumpet and violinist/vocalist Nicole Yarling, you have the makings of an unforgettable evening of music. Don't miss this wonderful concert presented by the Sunshine Jazz Organization!
