The Sunshine Jazz Concert Series Presents

The NIKKI KIDD Quintet

Sunday, March 22, 2020

March 2020

MIAMI, FL – SJO's Monthly Concert Series continues with a sensational and diverse songstress accompanied by her superb group. The Sunshine Jazz Organization is very pleased to present The Nikki Kidd Quintet. Nikki Kidd has become an International Jazz Vocalist with a palpable passion for music. Her musical style is the embodiment of classic and current jazz while her voice has the ability to transport you back to the days of speakeasys.

Raised in Miami Beach, Nikki's unique sound was greatly influenced by our culturally diverse melting pot. She started singing at the age of four and has developed a diverse musical palette. Nikki earned her Bachelor's Degree at the University of Miami in Studio Music and Jazz Voice as well as a Minor in Music Business. At U.M. Nikki studied with world renown jazz artists such as the late Kevin Mahogany and Kurt Elling, and it was there that Nikki developed an ear for jazz and her own unique stage presence. In 2018 she was voted Miami New Times "Best Jazz Act" as well as Legacy Magazine's 40 Under 40.

Among Nikki's accolades are working with Michael Bublé and as a background vocalist for Cory Henry with the Nu Deco Orchestra, Florida Grand Opera in their production of the Opera "Aida" at the Arsht Center. Her international performances include a residency at the Mandarin Oriental's Historic Bamboo Bar in Bangkok, Thailand, and a tour of Europe performing at Le Speakeasy in Paris, France, and performing in Moscow, UFA and Yekaterinburg, performing in the hottest jazz clubs in Russia. Nikki will be joined by a stellar band featuring Nevada Hadary - keyboards, Paul Pandit - bass, Patrick Seymour - sax and Errol Cooper - drums.
